

Anne Le Brun

Office: Department of Economics · Wellesley College · 106 Central Street · Wellesley, MA 02481
781-283-2988 · alebrun@wellesley.edu

Home: 520 Harrison Street, Apartment 202 · Boston, MA 02118 · 617-451-2428

---

Education:

2002-2008	University of California, Berkeley, Department of Economics Ph.D. in Economics Fields: labor and international Thesis: “Essays on Immigration and Crime” Dissertation committee: David Card (chair), David I. Levine, Edward Miguel	Berkeley, CA
2000-2002	Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government M.P.A. in International Development Thesis: “Lebanon – a Proposal for Devaluation and Recovery”	Cambridge, MA
1992-1997	Swarthmore College B.A. in Economics	Swarthmore, PA

Professional Experience:

Teaching

2006,	Harvard University, Department of Economics	Cambridge, MA
2001-2002	Section Leader, Principles of Economics (“Ec 10”)

Research

2003-2007	Haas School of Business Graduate research assistant to Professor David I. Levine	Berkeley, CA
-----------	--	---------------------

Non Governmental Organizations

Summer 2001	United Nations Development Programme Intern, UNDP Project at the Ministry of Finance	Beirut, Lebanon
June 2001	World Food Programme Intern, Office of Development Activities	Rome, Italy

Private Sector

1999-2000	ING Barings Equity research associate, Latin American telecommunications sector	New York, NY
1997-1999	JP Morgan Securities Equity research analyst, Latin American telecommunications sector	New York, NY

Papers:

“The Impact of Immigration on Crime Rates in the United States, 1994-2004”

“The Impact of Immigration on Drug Arrest Rates in the United States, 1994-2004”

“Industrialization’s Effects on Children’s Health and Education: Evidence from Mexico” with David I. Levine and Susan Helper

Academic Grants and Awards:

Dean’s Normative Time Fund, UC Berkeley

Honorable Mention for “Best Master’s Thesis,” Harvard University

Other Information:

Affiliations: American Economic Association

Languages: fluent in English, Spanish and French; rudimentary German

Citizenship: United States, Mexico and France