

Wellesley College
Club Coach's Role and Responsibilities

1. The coach must be aware of and follow all College procedures relative to Club Sports program.
2. The coach should restrict his/her contributions to coaching and should refrain from activities involved in the Club's management. A Sport Club is first and foremost a student organization and, as such, the student representative (not the coach) must serve as the liaison between the Club and the Sport Club Staff.
3. The philosophy and key to the success of the Sport Club program has been the continued emphasis placed on student leadership and participation.
4. Student members MUST handle all club business matters (hosting tournaments, submitting forms, equipment requests) with the coach serving in an advisory capacity.
5. Coaches must help ensure good sportsmanship at all times. Individuals must always conduct themselves in a manner that does not detract from the reputation of Wellesley College. This includes behavior in game situations, contact with other teams and interaction with other clubs. When involved in off-campus events or when traveling, be aware that you are still representing Wellesley College.
6. The Sport Club Staff has the right and obligation to protect the Club, and if, in the club and Director of Club Sports opinion, the coach is not working in the best interests of the Club, the coach will be relieved of his/her coaching duties.
7. Coaches must be recommended by Club members each academic year in order to coach. Continuation of coaching status is not automatic.

I have read and understand the "Coach's Role and Responsibilities" as outlined above and agree to abide by the rules as listed. I understand that any infraction of the policies and procedures of Wellesley College subjects me to dismissal as coach of the club. I also understand that the Division of Recreational Sports does not carry liability insurance or insurance for travel or accidental injury. I will not hold the division or the staff liable for any injury.
