Available anytime, any day, your Work-Life/EAP service is a free, confidential program to help you balance your work, family, and personal life.

Part of the Equation

Parental involvement is key to a child's academic success. Creating a home environment that supports learning, setting high academic expectations, and maintaining good communication with your child's teachers, are all important. Your Work-Life/EAP service can help with information and resources to support your school-aged child. Want your child to succeed in school? You do the math. Call or log on to get started.
