Note 1: The base level for the Durant Society doubled in 2000-01 for classes that had graduated within the last 10 years. Therefore, the Durant numbers prior to 2000-01 aren't counted for these classes. For other classes, the base level for the Durant Society changed to $2,500 in 2005-06, so the Durant numbers prior to 2005-06 aren't counted for these classes.

Note 2: The Campaign for $150 Million was launched in 1989 and ended in 1992.

Note 3: The Wellesley Campaign (for $400 Million) was launched in 2000 and ended in 2005.

Note 1: The base level for the Durant Society doubled in 2000-01 for classes that had graduated within the last 10 years. Therefore, the Durant numbers prior to 2000-01 aren't counted for these classes. For other classes, the base level for the Durant Society changed to $2,500 in 2005-06, so the Durant numbers prior to 2005-06 aren't counted for these classes.

Note 2: The Campaign for $150 Million was launched in 1989 and ended in 1992.

Note 3: The Wellesley Campaign (for $400 Million) was launched in 2000 and ended in 2005.

Therefore, the Durant numbers prior to 2000-01 aren't counted for these classes. For other classes, the base level for the Durant Society changed to $2,500 in 2005-06, so the Durant numbers prior to 2005-06 aren't counted for these classes.

Note 2: The Campaign for $150 Million was launched in 1989 and ended in 1992.

Note 3: The Wellesley Campaign (for $400 Million) was launched in 2000 and ended in 2005.

Note 1: The base level for the Durant Society doubled in 2000-01 for classes that had graduated within the last 10 years. Therefore, the Durant numbers prior to 2000-01 aren't counted for these classes. For other classes, the base level for the Durant Society changed to $2,500 in 2005-06, so the Durant numbers prior to 2005-06 aren't counted for these classes.

Note 2: The Campaign for $150 Million was launched in 1989 and ended in 1992.

Note 3: The Wellesley Campaign (for $400 Million) was launched in 2000 and ended in 2005.
