

Wellesley College Alumnae Association

Alumnae Leadership Council 2010

Welcome

On behalf of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association Board of Directors and staff, as well as our partners in the Office for Resources and the Office of Admission, welcome back to campus for the 87th annual Alumnae Leadership Council. We hope you will be energized by the workshops and inspired by fellow volunteer leaders, while taking time to enjoy the beauty of our campus in October as the leaves are turning.

Last year, based on input from prior year attendees and due to financial considerations, we shortened ALC. The evaluations we received overwhelmingly approved of these changes, so we are following a similar schedule this year with a program that runs from lunch on Saturday through lunch on Sunday. During your time on campus, you will have an opportunity to hear about your volunteer roles, to exchange ideas with your counterparts, and to learn how to use the Alumnae Association's technology offerings to improve communications with your fellow alumnae. On Saturday afternoon, we are holding a panel on "Wellesley Today" featuring key senior administrators: Jennifer Desjarlais, Dean of Admission and Financial Aid, Andrew Shennan, Provost and Dean of the College and Pete Zuraw, Assistant Vice President of Facilities Management and Planning.

A highlight of the weekend will be the reception and dinner on Saturday night, when we will celebrate your service to Wellesley. During dinner, you will have the opportunity to hear from President H. Kim Bottomly. In addition, to increase the interaction between students and alumnae, a select group of students will join us for this special dinner.

On Sunday, we'll close the weekend with a lunch followed by breakout sessions for you to spend more time with your peer volunteers — a request made by many attendees last year.

I look forward to meeting as many of you — our most dedicated volunteer leaders — as I can, and to hearing your feedback. Thank you for all you do for Wellesley. I'm sure it will be a wonderful weekend.

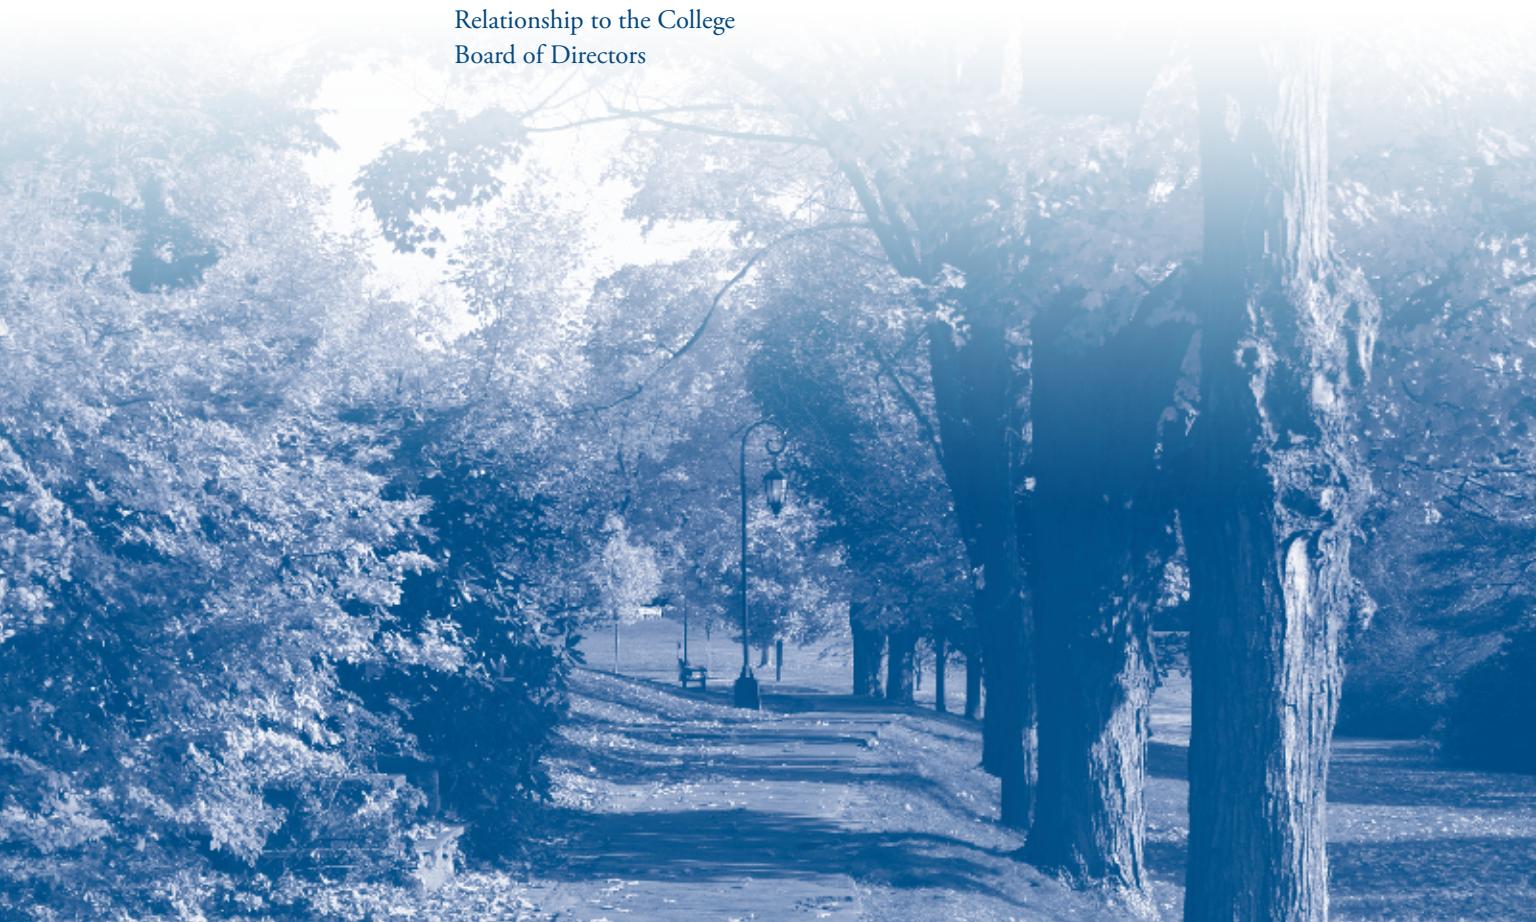

Best regards,

Susan Challenger '76
Executive Director
Wellesley College Alumnae Association

Engaging your Classmates: Goals and the Means to Get There ■

A connected class is a strong class. Getting there requires that the board shares a common vision and works towards it together, supported by the WCAA. In this session, we'll address how the president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary drive class engagement individually and collectively. We'll go over the objectives of your role and the resources available to you to grow class participation.

Susan Lohin, Director of Alumnae Connections

Christine Kurtz, Assistant Director of Classes

Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center, Room 413

Take Note I ■

(For secretaries)

Deadlines for class notes looming large? In two sessions, the editor and associate editors of Wellesley magazine will share tips and strategies for new class secretaries, from how to gather news about classmates and write a column to how to handle memorial tributes and photo submissions.

Your Alumnae Association

Mission Statement

The mission of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association is to support the Institutional Priorities of the College by connecting alumnae to the College and to each other. The Association serves as a lifelong resource to alumnae and encourages alumnae to contribute to the continued excellence of the College.

Relationship to the College

The Association is an independent, self governing organization created by the alumnae of Wellesley College in 1880. It maintains substantial representation on the Wellesley College Board of Trustees, with four alumnae trustees, a young alumnae trustee, and the president of the Association, who serves ex officio and with vote. On administrative and programming fronts, Association volunteers and staff work closely with the Office of Admission, Center for Work and Service, Office for Resources, President's Office, and other College offices.

In 1952, during the 75th Anniversary Fund campaign, the Alumnae Association board and the board of trustees began to rethink the fundraising role of the Association. The decision was made to change the Association's mission and since then, all fundraising for the College has come through the Office for Resources. The Alumnae Association continues to work closely and has a strong partnership with the Office for Resources as we serve these distinct roles.
